Summary

The sport of Squash has always been a popular social and competitive sport in Australia, enjoyed by people of all ages and both genders. The sport is supported at National, State and local levels by well organised tournaments and effective coaching and athlete pathways. Squash Australia is the governing body for squash in Australia.

Its mission is 'To provide innovative leadership and direction for the growth and development of Squash in Australia.' Its vision is that:

Squash will be a flourishing participant sport for people of all ages from all sectors of the Australian community

Squash will be a high profile sport in Australia, receiving extensive media coverage and maintaining a high level of community awareness

Squash facilities will be attractive, enticing, professionally operated and managed, and be financially viable

Australia will dominate squash internationally in terms of playing performance

Squash will be effectively administered throughout Australia under the leadership of a financial strong national body (Squash Australia)

Squash will be played in all major international (multi-sport) games.
