

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH002259

Kathleen Taperell interviewed by Sara Dowse [sound recording]

Repository National Library of Australia, Oral History and Folklore Collection

Reference ORAL TRC 5720

Date Range 27-Oct-06 - 27-Oct-06

Access Written permission is required for research use, personal copies and public use for 10 years from the date of the interview.

Finding Aid Timed summary (2 p.) and uncorrected transcript (typescript, 26 leaves)

Details

1 sound file (ca. 64 min.)??Kathleen Taperell talks about the 1993 re-election of Labor, strengthened Office of the Status of Women remained in Prime Minister & Cabinet; native title, reconciliation, Aboriginal policy branch; being head of the policy branch; women's status in public service; needing to justify function; government changes (1983) strong women's policy; taking leave without pay; the impact of illness in the family; her retirement; missing a sense of purpose, identification with job; her community service, continuing international work; report of Australian implementation of UN convention; helping to build local heritage support; chairing publications committee; her public sector achievement; specific achievements for women; public misconceptions of public sector work; valuing the public sector; changes in gender relations; promoting social harmony; opposing negative views about state power addressed; her personal style; her gratitude for stimulating work.

Author Details

Alannah Croom

Created 1 May 2009

Last modified 21 December 2017