

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0211

Jennings, Vera

Occupation Academic, Lecturer

Summary

Vera Jennings was among the first group of 58 students to graduate in the Arts Honours course at the University of Melbourne in 1920-21.

Jennings then joined the English Department as a tutor (1929-) before becoming an Acting Lecturer (March 1942-), a Lecturer (1947-) and finally a Senior Lecturer (1951-). She retired on 28 February 1965.

Published resources

Book

Degrees of liberation : a short history of women in the University of Melbourne, Kelly, Farley, 1985

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

The University of Melbourne Archives

Jennings, Vera

Author Details

Clare Land

Created 8 December 2001
Last modified 27 April 2009