Details

1 hour 7 minutes??A collection of eight interviews conducted by pairs of Year 5 students at Seymour College Junior School as part of their school work during 1988. The interviews were entered in 'Voices of the Past: An Oral History Award for Schools' which was organised for the first time in 1988 by the Oral History Association of Australia (South Australian Branch). The interviews concern old scholars' recollections of Presbyterian Girls' College (now Seymour College) during their school days.
