

Entry type: Organisation

Entry ID: AWE5949

Supreme Court of Victoria

(1852 -)

Born 1 January, 1852, Melbourne Victoria Australia

Summary

The Supreme Court of Victoria is the superior court in the State. As such, it hears among the most serious criminal, and complex civil, cases in the state, as well as some appeals from Victorian courts and tribunals. It comprises two divisions, namely the Trial Division and the Court of Appeal. The Supreme Court sat for the first time on 10 February 1852.

Published resources

Resource

Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Author Details

Marina Loane

Created 19 September 2016

Last modified 10 October 2016