Summary

The Australian Womensport and Recreation Association Inc (AWRA) is a volunteer not-for-profit organisation that was incorporated in 2005 to provide leadership and advocacy for Australian women and girls in sport and active recreation. As well as seeking to encourage the participations of women of all ages and abilities to participate in sporting and recreational pursuits, the AWRA seeks to encourage governments and sporting and recreation providers to develop strategies that will increase the numbers of women in leadership roles in the sport and recreation industries.
