ANU Club for Women Inc.

(1961 -)

Born 1 January, 1961, Canberra Australian Capital Territory Australia

Summary

The ANU Club for Women Inc was established in 1961 by the Vice Chancellor's wife, Lady Molly Huxley. It was formed to provide support to the families of academics, staff, and visitors coming to the University.

Originally membership of the Club consisted mostly of wives of academics, past Vice Chancellors' wives and professional officers of the ANU. Today, however, members include all staff, as well as those who have a close association with the ANU.

The Club has various sub-groups, including: the Monday Group; the Bushwalking Group, the Morning Book Reading Group; and the Evening Book Reading Group.
