Details

20 hours (approx. to date)??The second part in a series of interviews with South Australian women who are recipients of Australia Day and Queen's Birthday honours. The interviewing program is funded by the Minister for the Arts and the Status of Women, the Hon. Diana Laidlaw, to celebrate the contribution of women to South Australia. The first series of interviews are held at OH 505. The project is supervised by the Oral History Officer, J.D. Somerville Oral History Collection, and the interviews have similar themes to those explored in the State Library's Oral History of Women's Political Activity, 1993-1994, held at OH 250.
