

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000807

A pre-dinner chat for Women's Royal Australian Army Corps (WRAAC) officers

---

Repository Australian War Memorial, Research Centre

---

Reference SMT/66/0042/EC

---

Date Range 2-Apr-66 - 2-Apr-66

---

Formats Photograph

---

Details

Mosman, Sydney. 2 April 1966. A pre-dinner chat for Women's Royal Australian Army Corps (WRAAC) officers, left to right: Major Lucy Crane of Eastern Command, Sydney; Colonel Dawn Jackson, Director of WRAAC; Honorary Colonel May Douglas, WRAAC Honorary Colonel, and Major Dulcie Verender, Chief Instructor of the WRAAC. They were among fifty officers at a dining out night at the WRAAC Officer School, Mosman, in honour of Colonel Douglas, who retires this week. Guests at the dinner represented all States of Australia.

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 3 April 2003

Last modified 4 January 2018