

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000852

Members of the Girl Guides Association (South Australia) working in the depot during their thrift campaign to raise funds for organisations such as the Red Cross

---

Repository Australian War Memorial, Research Centre

---

Reference P00951.001

---

Formats Photograph

---

Details

Adelaide, SA. Members of the Girl Guides Association (South Australia) working in the depot during their thrift campaign to raise funds for organisations such as the Red Cross. Left to right: back row: Lady Muriel Barclay Harvey (wife of the Governor of South Australia), Mrs Herbert Rymill (State Chief Commissioner), Rita Webb, Rosemary Liddell-Grainger (daughter of the Governor's wife ), Barbara Godson; front row: Fairley Grove, May Douglas, Mrs Sydney Ayres, Mrs Julian Ayres, Miss Elkin, Miss A. Morphet (secretary of the thrift drive), Mrs Lance Lewis (originator of the thrift drive), Mrs Hugh Davidson (in charge of the thrift depot and sales).

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 4 April 2003

Last modified 4 January 2018