Feely, Nicole

Occupation Lawyer, Public servant

Summary

Ms Nicole Feely was appointed as Australian Capital Territory Health Director-General in 2015. Ms Feely is the former lead partner for Health at KPMG Canberra and former Chief Executive of South Metropolitan Health (Western Australia) and St Vincent's Health (Victoria).

She has a proven track-record of running efficient, effective health services in both Western Australia and Victoria.

Ms Feely's record as a senior leader in the health sector is outstanding.

As well as a strong background in delivering health services on a large scale, Ms Feely has also proven herself in other sectors; including as a General Manager for the Sydney Organising Committee for the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games; as Chief Executive of the Victorian Employers' Chamber of Commerce and Industry; and as Chief of Staff to former Australian Prime Minister, the Honourable John Howard OM AC.
