

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH001562

Interview with Martha Kernich [sound recording]

Interviewer: Neil Baron

---

Repository	State Library of South Australia
-------------------	----------------------------------

---

Reference	OH 326/13
------------------	---------------------------

---

Date Range	28-May-94 - 28-May-94
-------------------	-----------------------

---

Formats	Sound recording (cassette) analogue
----------------	-------------------------------------

---

Access	No restrictions on access
---------------	---------------------------

---

Finding Aid	Full transcript (30 pages)
--------------------	----------------------------

---

Details

1 hour 51 minutes??Martha Kernich, nee Scherer, was born at Cambrai, South Australia, the daughter of a Lutheran minister and one of 11 children. When she was 18 she moved to Adelaide to enter domestic service, first at Immanuel College and then private homes until she married her sister in law's brother in 1942. They moved onto his family's farm on Eyre Peninsula. Martha and her husband had three sons and a daughter and Martha became involved in the local branch of the Country Women's Association and in exhibiting at local shows. Martha and her husband separated in 1956 and she and the children settled in Freeling. She remarried in 1963.

Author Details

Jane Carey

Created 7 May 2004

Last modified 28 December 2017