

Entry type: Organisation

Entry ID: AWE6550

Women's International League for Peace and Freedom – New South Wales Branch

(1920 -)

Born 1 January, 1920, New South Wales Australia

Summary

The first New South Wales Branch of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF) was formed by Isabel Swann and Amy Wilkins in Newcastle in 1920.

After ceasing operations in 1939, WILPF NSW was revived by Margaret Holmes in Sydney in 1959.

Author Details

Alannah Croom

Created 7 April 2019

Last modified 7 April 2019