Occupation Ex-Armed services organisation

Summary

When established, the aim of the Ex-AAMWS (Australian Army Medical Women's Service) Association of New South Wales Inc. was to maintain friendships formed during World War II as well as assisting members in whatever way possible. This includes the dissemination of information about pensions and benefits through their quarterly publication Pulse. Members also support a range of charities, care for frail members and participate in marches, wreath laying ceremonies and reunions.
