Details

MS Acc02.093 comprises diaries Terese Moore kept from 1955-1998 recording day-to-day activities and her extensive travels when she lived in America and Europe. The collection also includes a selection of letters from son Peter, 1950-1959, family and friends, 1984-1988, while in the United States from 1949-1951 and letters from her husband while at war, 1942-1945. There are also papers relating to Moore's involvement with the Canberra Repertory Society, of which she became a life member, dating from before the Second World War (1 box, 6 cartons).
