The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE1290

Jones, Violet Margaret

(1911 - 2001)

Nationality	Australian
Born	13 July, 1911, Chiltern Victoria Australia
Died	1 January, 2001
Occupation	Nursing administrator

Summary

Violet Jones enlisted with the Australian Army Nursing Service on December 15, 1941. She was attached to the 115 General Hospital in Heidelberg, Victoria.

Details

Following twelve months with the Australian Army Nursing Service (AANS), Violet Jones continued her nursing career in hospitals.

She had ten siblings including one brother who was detained as a prisoner of war in Japan during the Second World War. Violet's letter to him in 1942 is still in the possession of his daughter Kathryn Lucas.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

National Archives of Australia, National Office, Canberra
JONES VIOLET MARGARET : Service Number - V148279 : Date of birth - Unknown : Place of birth - CHILTERN VIC : Place of enlistment - HEIDELBERG VIC : Next of Kin - JONES CHRISTIAN

Author Details
Barbara Lemon

Created 7 September 2005
Last modified 6 December 2005